Dear Parents / Carers,

We celebrated a lovely Harvest Mass this morning. It was the first time the Reception children had joined us and they all did really well, joining in with responses and singing the hymns. Father Graham asked us to think about how much time goes into preparing food, from the work of the farmers who grow and harvest the crops, to our parents who prepare the meals we eat. During this time we also think about the people who may not have much to eat. Thank you to everyone involved but especially Verity T, Pearce A, Isabel N, Charlie H, and Olivia B in Class 4E for reading so clearly, to Leroy S and Tegan M for taking the offertory gifts and to Isla M and Rebecca S for serving on the altar. Thank you also to everyone for the Harvest gifts that were sent into school and have been donated to The Basement Project and New Start. The winners of our Harvest raffle for CAFOD were, Heidi D and Logan McM.

Have a lovely weekend.

Kind regards,

Mrs. Clubley

Weekly Prayer

At harvest we give thanks. We give thanks for farmers who work to feed us. We give thanks for creation which provides for all our needs. We give thanks for the rain which gives us the water of life. At harvest time we give thanks. Amen.

Nick Harding

Parent's Consultation Evenings

Just a note to welcome all parents to these important discussions, and to inform you that during your appointment, we will be asking for confirmation of your child's nationality and their home / first language. This is purely a requirement set out by our annual school Spring term census. We look forward to seeing you all then.

St. Peter's Christmas Bazaar will be held on Saturday 26th November!

Please make a note in your diary to keep this date free to come along and share the fun and excitement of this family event at St. Peter's. There will be lots to see and experience and an opportunity to share the Christmas spirit with family and friends!

All parents are invited to a Christmas Bazaar planning meeting which is taking place on Thursday 20th October at 2.00p.m. in the Community Centre.

Golden Time

If you are able to donate any games to Golden Time, all kind donations will be gratefully received and thoroughly enjoyed by our children during this important recreational time. Many thanks.

Reporting an Absence

When reporting an absence to the school office via the answer machine, please can parents and carers ensure that a reason is always provided so that the appropriate entry is made on the school register. Thank you.
