Dear Parents / Carers,

What a busy week for both staff and children! Although it has been a little chilly in the mornings it has been lovely to see the sun come out and the children have thoroughly enjoyed being on the field.

Miss. Colclough and I began the week with a Learning Walk around school to see how the children had settled into their new classes. We saw some active lessons, lovely displays of children's work, children engaged in their learning, and excellent behaviour. Well done everyone. We are looking forward to seeing some of your work in your books over the coming weeks.

On Tuesday the Academy Representatives held their first Full Committee Meeting of the new academic year where we shared our statutory data and Key Priorities for the new school year. On Wednesday afternoon the staff began to explore our school curriculum. In light of recent Ofsted changes we are taking this opportunity to revisit the learning opportunities and learning journey available to all our children. This will be something we will be exploring in depth over the coming months. On Wednesday evening St. Peter's hosted the first MAC Meeting for the Board of Directors where we shared examination and assessment data across the Multi-Academy Company. Well done to St. Bede's and St. Augustine's on their results once again this year.

Today many of us came to school in our 'Jeans' to support the charity Genetic Disorders UK 'Jeans for Genes Day'. Apologies for any confusion this may have caused – especially for our new parents. Essentially this was a non-uniform day where children (and staff) had the opportunity to wear casual

Weekly Prayer

Lord Jesus, help us to grow good and strong in your love. Help us to make the right choices. Be with us throughout the day to be our guiding light.

Amen

clothes to school in exchange for £1 donation towards the charity. Thank you to everyone who has contributed. If you forgot your £1 it is not too late to send in a contribution.

On Tuesday next week we are looking forward to welcoming back M&M Theatrical Productions touring theatre company, to perform the classic tale 'Oliver Twist'. This is a fabulous opportunity for the children to experience live theatre and I would like to thank the 'Friends of St. Peter's' for paying for this experience and enabling it to happen.

I hope you have a lovely weekend and enjoy the sunshine while it lasts.

Kind regards, Mrs. Clubleby
